

PRINCESS ANNE.

The Act of August 7, 1861, ch. 98, amends section 136 as follows :

6. The commissioners of Somerset county are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint three persons, residents of said county, who shall have power, and are hereby authorized and directed to lay out and define the boundaries and limits of the town of Princess Anne, in said county.

7. The said commissioners so as aforesaid appointed shall cause a record and plot of their proceedings to be made, and the said proceedings and plot shall be returned to the office of the county commissioners of said county, where the same shall be subject to objection one month, at the expiration of which time, if approved by the said county commissioners, the same shall be recorded among the records of said county by the clerk of the Circuit Court.

8. The necessary expenses incurred in the execution of this act shall be in the discretion of said county commissioners paid by a levy upon the assessable property of said town, at the next regular county levy.

9. This act shall take effect from the date of approval of the said proceedings by the said county commissioners.

SCHOOLS.

The Act of May 9, 1861, ch. 15, repeals section 198 and substitutes the following :

10. The interest arising from any school funds apportioned by the State to Somerset county, or any such funds as may belong to said county, shall be paid directly to the treasurer of said board of school commissioners, and the balance necessary for the support of public education, beyond any fees for tuition, which may be received as hereinbefore provided, shall be levied and collected by taxation upon the assessable property of said county, in the same manner that other taxes are levied and collected, which sums, when so collected, shall also be paid over to
